

Job Position Available
Learning Support Specialist
Start date: August 2018

All Souls Catholic School is a Preschool to 8 Catholic Elementary School serving the educational needs of students in South San Francisco. The school has a long history of academic success focusing on the whole child's growth. All staff are trained professionals with the notion of building a Christian community for the students and the staff.

The school offers a comprehensive education including core subjects along with elective subjects. Technology is a driving force at All Soul's where students and parents have 24hr access to their records, assignments, and other information. All students have their own laptop and Blended learning is a driving force with curriculum.

Our students graduate as Active Christians, Confident Communicators, Fully Integrated Individuals, Life Long Learners and Responsible Citizens.

All Souls Catholic School is seeking a Learning Support Specialist to work with students in small group settings and also on an one on one situation. The position requires the successful candidate to work with families in developing the IEP process with the local Unified school district.
