- Provides professional leadership by developing, reviewing and revising departmental goals/objectives and oversees their implementation.
- Manages ongoing organization, job descriptions, in-services, supervision and evaluation of 12 staff members. Recruits and hires new staff as needed.
- Directs all departmental activities; promotes support for key departmental events and initiatives by being present when reasonably possible.
- Develops and supervises the department's budget.
- Oversees all departmental communications (web page, newsletters) correspondence and reports.
- Maintains a favorable working relationship with Chancery departments to foster and promote a cooperative working climate.
- Directs projects as assigned by the Bishop and BAC. Represents the Bishop and his mission as needed.
- Provides oversight and support of the religious education of children and youth in our religious education programs.
- Chairs and/or participates in advisory boards, committees, and task forces as requested or needed.
- Attend meetings with the California Conference, USCCB, Region XI, and other related organizations. Communication with leadership as needed.

- Resources the Bishop of Oakland on Catholic evangelization and catechesis as needed.
- Directs and supports an evangelizing perspective throughout the Diocese (parishes, deaneries, regions, and departments) which calls all people to conversion to Jesus Christ and full communion with the Catholic Church.
- Directs the planning, development and coordination of programs that are consistent with international, national, and local plans for the realization of evangelization and catechetical goals.
- Draft correspondence and other documents and papers.
- Demonstrate the ability to guide, customize, and follow through on all expected responsibilities for effective programming.
- Demonstrate the ability to adapt the program to meet the needs of the organization by resolving problems, answering questions, and addressing concerns promptly and effectively.
- Demonstrate the ability to work in a collaborative style in a team environment.
- Display genuine interest and care for the people of the diocese by honoring the cultural context and personality distinctions.
- May be given various other assignments and projects consistent with the responsibility level and general duties of a Department Director.
