

Chancery Employment Opportunities October 18, 2017

Director of Human Life & Dignity (Full-time)

The Director of Human Life and Dignity will be responsible for overseeing the following areas: Respect Life, Restorative Justice, Justice and Peace, Parish Organizing and Leadership Development, and Project Rachel. The Director will also develop policy positions in consultation with the Archbishop and the Moderator of the Curia that are relevant to the mission of the Catholic Church locally, nationally, and internationally. The Director will also promote within the Archdiocese the work of Catholic Relief Services and the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. The ideal candidate must be an excellent writer and public speaker and competent in dealing with the press in relation to important issues of social justice. This individual must also have the ability to ground any public policy issue advanced by the Archdiocese in Scripture and Tradition.

The candidate must also have proven success in articulating social policy that is grounded in and in conformity with Catholic teaching. Five years of experience in a social policy area relevant to Catholic social teaching is preferred.

If you are interested in any of these positions please contact:
Patrick Schmidt by phone at 415-614-5538 or forward you resume to careers@sfarch.org

Pursuant to the San Francisco Fair Chance Ordinance, we will consider for employment qualified applicants with arrest and conviction records.