

English Teacher – Marin Catholic

Position will begin August 2018

Teachers at Marin Catholic High School have the primary responsibility to implement the school philosophy through instructional competence, through participation in the creation of a school community, and through their role as a bridge between the individual student and the world community.

Salary and benefits are commensurate with experience according to a Union contract.

Qualifications, credentials, experience, knowledge & skills for the position:

- Degree in English or related field
- High school teaching experience, preferred
- Catholic, preferred
- Desire to share his/her faith journey
- Teaching credential preferred
- Ability to collaborate effectively with faculty, students and staff
- Intellectually curious and willingness to grow professionally
- Ability to integrate technology effectively into English curriculum
- Maintains best professional practices in communicating with peers, students and parents

Interested applicants for positions should submit a letter of interest and current resume to Andy Van Horn, Assistant Principal at teachingemployment@marincatholic.org.