

Performing Arts- Drama – Marin Catholic

Position will begin August 2018

Position:

- Teach one (potentially two) section(s) of Drama
- Prepare or curate exercises and lessons (i.e., games) to teach focus, presence, and improvisation
- Prepare or curate activities that rely on advance preparation and collaboration (e.g., monologues, skits)
- For a complete description please click here.

Qualifications, credentials, experience, knowledge & skills for the position:

- Degree in Drama or related field, preferred
- Middle/High school acting teaching experience, preferred
- Familiarity with Theater Productions
- Directing and/or Acting experience, preferred
- Catholic, preferred
- A desire to share his/her faith journey
- Teaching credential preferred
- Ability to collaborate effectively with faculty, students and staff
- Intellectually curious and willingness to grow professionally
- Ability to integrate technology effectively into curriculum
- Maintains best professional practices in communicating with peers, students and parents

Salary and benefits are commensurate with experience.

Interested applicants for positions should submit a letter of interest and current resume to Andy Van Horn, Assistant Principal at teachingemployment@marincatholic.org.