

Position: ASL (American Sign Language) Teacher

About Archbishop Riordan High School

Archbishop Riordan High School is an urban Catholic high school for boys, owned by the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of San Francisco and conducted by the Society of Mary, the Marianists, who are assisted by lay men and women. Archbishop Riordan prepares young men of San Francisco, the surrounding communities and various countries from around the world for leadership through its inclusive college preparatory curriculum. Archbishop Riordan fosters development in faith, character, academics, the arts and athletics, in a diverse and inclusive family environment.

The modern languages department is hiring an ASL teacher for the 2018-19 school year.

Responsibilities:

- Teaching ASL 1 through ASL 4 at grade levels 9-12.
- Designing a spiral curriculum with clear objectives for all lessons, units and projects, and communicating those objectives to students.
- Setting up a resource time for individual help outside of class during the school day.
- Meeting the needs of a wide range of students by providing extra support or varying assignments.
- Collaborating with department members and administrators in the development, evaluation, and continuous improvement.
- Attending professional meetings, educational conferences, and teacher training workshops in order to maintain and improve professional competence.

Requirements

- Bachelor's degree, Master's preferred
- Native fluency or equivalent ASL education
- Teaching experience preferred

- Understanding and support of the mission and values of Archbishop Riordan High

Compensation

Salary will be based on experience.

To apply, please email your Letter of Interest and Resume to:

Ms. YinShan Yang

Modern Languages Department Chair

yyang@riordanhs.org

Please indicate “ASL Position” in the email subject line.

###